STORIES FROM THE ON-COURSE REPORTER: (Dave Leisure)

OBSERVATIONS FROM WITHIN THE EVERGREEN BOUGHS:

-I can now confirm that a whiff IS a crummier shot than a near miss.....

-It's hard to beat an opponent who hits multiple RNI's during a round, then proceeds to deliver 250 yard approach shots to within feet of the pin.....

-We heard that Chad "Hee-Haw" Breaugh's partner, David "Not a Chevy but" Offord bailed at the last second; forcing Chad to take on each member of "Two B's and an A" all by himself. Eyewitness accounts confirm that "Chad 1" played well, but "Chad 2" struggled.....

-When is an ugly shot not so bad after all? When it's struck by Greg "Baldie" Waldie on the third hole. Evidently, this gopher-ducking screamer never had a chance to look pretty, until it finally ran out of gas six feet from the hole – resulting in an easy birdie and a skin.

HOLE PRIZES:

Longest Putt on #7 - Mike "ShortDrive" Longstreet
Closest to the pin on #9 – Greg "Snooker" Tooker

FROM THE 19TH HOLE: (Greg Waldie)

In his own words, Tom "Mr. Secretary" Burnie was telling about being 70 yards from #4 green after his tee shot. He speculated that maybe he should have used his putter the rest of the way in, because by the time he was done he had an "8".

Building on what Mr. Leisure noted above, the bar was abuzz when Steve "NachoBoy" Walker announced that he had back-to-back RNI pars.

QUOTES OF THE WEEK: (Greg Waldie)

A few of the guys were discussing how Rusty "Oleum" Meska almost hit a flock of birdies and Rusty says, "and they were firmly on the ground".

"My work is done here." This was Howard "Quoteman" Peston preparing to call it a night. Earlier, he had delivered the "worst golfer of the week" trophy, so that we can carry on this devilish ritual of focusing the spotlight on the nastiest golfer of the week. For this week, it ended up being none other than Sue "GB" Reed. No wonder she didn't show up in the clubhouse.

FASHION CORNER:

Jerry "Labowski" Laban was particularly fashionable in his sunglasses at night.

Here's the recap:

#1 – A number of pars on this starting hole.....NO SKIN OUT

#2 – A few pars here.....NO SKIN OUT

This was also a Shirt hole and there were four 8s, soNO SHIRT OUT

#3 – I thought my (Greg Waldie) shot looked like a Miguel Cabrera line shot back up the middle and...I made the putt for a Skin

#4 – Carl "Gold" Bond's second shot danced around the pin for an easy birdie and a Skin.

#5 – Rusty Meska makes a nice birdie 3 here and wins a Skin.

#6 – Only four pars, but that is plenty.....NO SKIN OUT

#7 – Two very nice birdies by Mike Cool and Carl Bond, so it's like we all birdied it.....NO SKIN OUT

#8 – Several pars.....NO SKIN OUT

This was also a Shirt hole and two nasty nines means.....NO SHIRT OUT

#9 – Two more birdies here by Larry Perfitt and Andrew Rademacher.....NO SKIN OUT

For the poker hand, the holes were 1, 3, 6, 7, and 9. Rusty Meska had four 5s to edge out Jerry Laban who had four 4s, to take a share of the pot. That's back-to-back poker hand wins for Rusty!

Final Tally: 27 players in the game for a total pot of $54

3 Skins and Poker Hand paying off.

$54/4 = $13.50 for each share and Rusty walking away with $27

Thanks for participating in the Shirts and Skins game!

Happy Golfing
