STORIES FROM THE ON-COURSE REPORTER: (Dave Leisure & Greg Waldie)

OBSERVATIONS FROM THE PRACTICALLY BONE-DRY INSIDE NINE:

-Finally! A great night for golf and fellowship! Speaking of weather, the Skinny editorial staff uncovered a recent tidbit regarding our previous events chairman, "Nacho Boy" Walker. Stevie suggests that, during the two years of his "reign", it never rained on league night unless he wanted it to. Sue and Rusty, what'ya got?

-This reporter struggled mightily during the middle of the round. The sixth hole was the epicenter of my blow-up. Started out with a double RNI off the tee. Followed that up by hitting into my opponents and partner from the very same fairway. The rest of the story: I was inspired by the target practice shooting, occurring across the street at the police firing range. Seeing three "targets of opportunity" off my left shoulder, I fired off a "reverse shank" – scoring five points for hitting a pull cart, but failing to win a kewpee doll for hitting Osama Bin-Bean, Osama Bin-Derose, or Osama Bin-Tooker.

-Speaking of the sixth hole, we watched Kerry "My Darling Clementine", in the group in front of us, as he tested the proposed new teeing area for #6, which will evidently be moved to the stand of trees between the 5th green and the current #6 teeing area. Word has it that Kerry likes the idea of taking the dog leg out of play on that hole. Stay tuned.

Troy "Boy" Burnie was subbing for the supposed "A" player (Meska) and the BBs beat the PPs quite handily. This was despite the fact that Howard "QuoteMan" Peston decided to change the game, at least for one shot, on #8. Word has it that Howie was on the back fringe of #8 and Troy's ball was directly between his and the hole and also on the fringe. Apparently, Howard decided to play a little croquet and "send" Troy Boy. He skulled his ball right into Troy's and nearly knocked it in the hole. Unfortunately, it took Howard a little longer to get his own ball in the hole.

PS: Troy knew the rules and replaced his ball, back on the fringe, before hitting his next shot.

Brian "Popeye" Steavens started the day with an RNI and then proceeded to par the hole.

HOLE PRIZES: (Greg Waldie)

There was another communication breakdown regarding the hole prizes. Because the "lead group" didn't have a clue what the hole prizes were supposed to be, they just made up their own. The next-to-the-last group, knowing what the hole prizes were supposed to be, made a mid-play change and removed the marker from 3 green. This nullified a beautiful shot by Todd Gibbs to about 2 feet.

Longest putt on # 4- Dave "Life Of" Leisure

Total Actual Score on the Par 3s – A tie between Jim Vedder and Greg Waldie (5)

FROM THE 19TH HOLE: (Greg Waldie)

Our blonde waitress was unable to find enough cheese to go along with the whining from Todd Gibbs, after our round. So what that his beautiful shot on 3 was not recognized for closest to the pin, or that his deuce was covered on that hole for a skin, or that his "39" was not good enough to win his match. Where are the violins?

Here's the recap: (Greg Waldie)

#1 – Several pars on the opener.....NO SKIN OUT

This was also a Shirt hole and Steven "TwoFirstNames" James makes his mark with a "12" and wins a Shirt

#2 – Several pars here.....NO SKIN OUT

#3 – Two deuces (Vedder & Gibbs), so it's just like we all have a 2 on our cards.....NO SKIN OUT

#4 – A few pars.....NO SKIN OUT

#5 – Three birdies here (Laban, Stiles, & Vedder).....NO SKIN OUT

#6 – Back-to-back birdies by Jerry Laban and this one pays off with a Skin.

#7 – A few pars here.....NO SKIN OUT

This was also a Shirt hole and there were multiple 7s.....NO SHIRT OUT

#8 – A chip-in birdie by Greg "Baldie" Waldie on this long short hole and he wins a Skin

#9 – Plenty'o pars here.....NO SKIN OUT

For the poker hand, the holes were 1, 3, 5, 6, and 8. Matt "Happy" Allen had Four 5s to take a share of the pot.

Final Tally: 27 players in the game for a total pot of $54

2 Skins, 1 Shirt, and Poker Hand paying off.

$$54/4 = $13.50$  for each share

Thanks for participating in the Shirts and Skins game!
