

From: DeRose, John
Sent: Monday, April 30, 2012 4:12 PM
To: Farm Bureau Golf League
Cc: Lowell, Justin; Kroupa, Jeffrey
Subject: THE SKINNY

THE SKINNY

OBSERVATIONS FROM THE COMFORT OF THE 19TH HOLE: (John DeRose & Steve Walker)

Editors Note: The original intent of the Skinny publications was to report the results of the skins game. The Skinny's content has grown to include Hole Prize results and written commentary of the shenanigans that go on during league play and at the club house. (Remember what goes on at Royal Scot does not stay at Royal Scot). With the content of our Golf League Web Page expanding to include links to "Hole Prizes/Winners" and "Latest Skins" we do not plan on providing this information in the Skinny publication. Our main content will be commentary of the tomfoolery that goes on during league play and at the club house.

STORIES FROM THE ON-COURSE REPORTER: (Greg Waldie)

Thank God for "Young Legs"

To set the scene, we have Rusty Meska, standing at his tee shot in the fairway on #8...dead behind the nasty four-pronged tree at the corner. He is contemplating three possible options: 1) Left of tree 2) right of tree or 3) Hit and hope. Apparently, he selected the latter, because he hit his second shot and "whap", it hit the tree and bounded back directly at his partner, "Twinkle Toes" Tom Burnie. Thank goodness Tom still has "relatively young" legs (at least in this group). He quickly grabbed his bag of shiny new clubs and scampered far enough to avoid the 2-stroke penalty, that most definitely would have been assessed, had he allowed himself to be hit by that errant golf ball.

FASHION CORNER:

It was SOOO cold out there that my partner Sandy "Diamond Cutter" Taylor could have cut glass!!