

The Skinny

2012, Week 8

June 2012

The Rusty Corner

After a decent drive down the left side of number 5, Rusty has put himself in the rough with a good lie and a great look at the green from about 100 yards out. 1, 2, and 3 flawless practice swings later he has the confidence to hit an easy wedge into the green and set himself up for a birdie opportunity. However, Rusty found the sweet spot on the bottom of his wedge and bladed the shot clear across the green nearly taking Tom H. out of retirement. Now rusty is behind the trees and just in front of #6 tee box. After his last shot peaking at about 3.5 feet off the ground Rusty somehow thinks, from the walk to his ball he has gained the ability to hit a Phil Mickelson flop shot over a 50 foot tree and then have it hold on a green 10 yards away from him. I'm not sure if he thought he was on The Price is Right but his next shot sure did 'Plinko' down the trees directly in front of him. Now in the clear and past the trees he hits a boring chip to the green, Rusty being the older gentleman that he is shared some wisdom with the rest of the group while walking to his ball, "Just a little information for you all.... You do NOT want to be over there".

Thanks for the tip Rusty!

Quotes

John DeRose struggled on the first 3 holes, missing greens right and left. He walks up to the beverage cart girl and says give me a gun and one bullet. Sue Reed responds to this with ... better make it two bullets you might miss with the first.

OUCH!!!

- Submitted by Doug Kammann

-

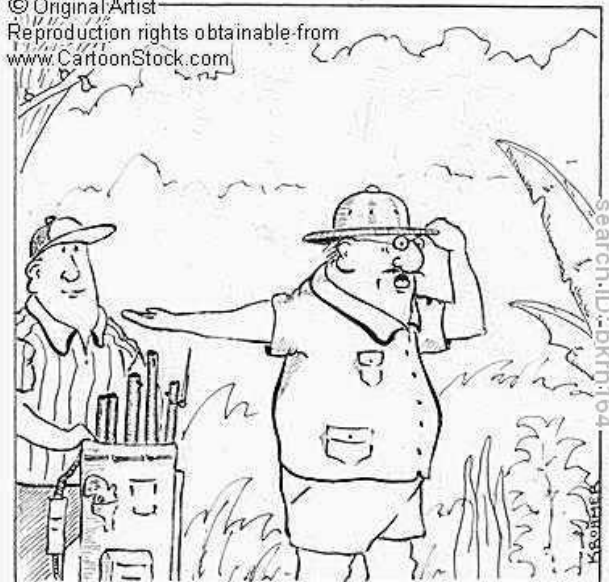

© Original Artist
Reproduction rights obtainable from www.CartoonStock.com

search ID: dr00326

"I SUGGEST WE LET HIM PLAY THROUGH."

© Original Artist
Reproduction rights obtainable from
www.CartoonStock.com

search ID: bkrr:64

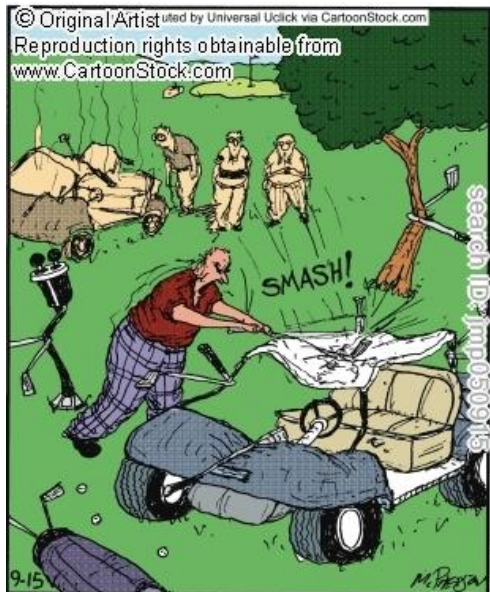

120 YARDS...GROSS-BREEZE...OVER WATER.
HAND ME A 20 GAUGE

- Submitted by Troy Burnie

Quotes Cont.

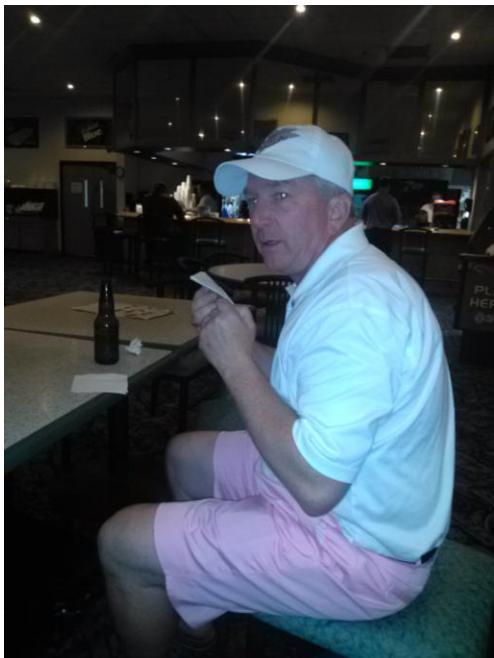

Who does this remind you of?

- Submitted by ??

Weapons of mass destruction.

Icon of Golf Fashion

A Year Ago

I had the distinct pleasure of playing with the new "Young Gun" of the FB Golf League, Bryan "Rory" McKenney and it was pretty awesome. I haven't seen anyone hit it as long and high and straight since the days of Lee Peters. Come to think of it, I am not sure a young Lee could have kept up with the McDriver. There is another part to young Bryan that will be good for the league for years to come. He is just a pleasant and polite person who is really happy to be a part of the Farm Bureau family. And, he has FB roots, as his father is an FB Agent.

- Submitted by Greg Waldie

I know you'll all recognize guys you know that fit these descriptions!! Very funny

The Air Counter

Defining characteristics: Can't remember his score without reliving every shot in detail. Favorite expression: "One in the pond, two drop, three back in the pond. Four I had that funky lie in the bunker and left it in the bunker..."

Vince Berry ... Maybe on 6, 7 and 8.