

THE SKINNY - Week Two (Outside Nine)

OBSERVATIONS FROM THE 19th Hole: (Greg Waldie)

Of course we got rained out last week...we were on the inside nine! Have we ever been rained out on the north nasty?

With the wonderful break in the weather, it was a night for an absolutely fabulous white leg light show! In fact, the large group of winter weary Michiganders on that practice green provided such a leg glow, it was viewable from the international space station.

As you may remember from week one, Don Simon was lamenting how his three-person team had to resort to having a sub the first night. Well, it was even worse in week two, as they had a sub as their only representative and only got 7 points.

FASHION CORNER:

(Above right) There's Bob "The Smurf" Murphy looking cool and protecting his eyes from the white leg glare, even in the clubhouse!

Here are a couple more fashion statements by "Kreapa" (Sanford & Son T-Shirt) and "2M's&N's" pink shorts.

QUOTE(S) OF THE WEEK:

"It was a total decel..." This was Jerry "Labanowski" just beginning to describe his double hit with his putter! His partner, Troy Boy, thought it may have been an epileptic episode brought on by Jerry catching a glimpse of Sue "GB" Reed's wild shorts.

"Bean hit it by me!" Brian "Mac" McKenney speaking incredulously about how badly he hit his tee shot on #6.

Doug "2M's&N's" Kammann was short of the trap on #5 in 2 shots. He quickly dumped it into the trap. His partner "GB" yells over, "Do you need a club?" and Doug says, "I brought it!"

Beebe-Kroupa were playing against the "lone wolf" Mark Voss, who just happens to be Jeff's agent. So, Jeff tells him, "If you beat me, I'm moving my account to Greenman!"

If you think it's hard to meet new people, try picking up the wrong golf ball.
