

THE SKINNY - Week Five (North Nine)

QUOTE(S) OF THE WEEK:

Rusty Meska stood on the first tee and declared, "I'm going to hit fairways tonight." His always supportive partner, Tom Burnie quickly asked, "Ours?" Rusty proceeded to knock it into #9 fairway!

Troy "Boy" Burnie doesn't hold back when he swings and he really lashed his tee shot on #6. In fact, I would have to call it a wind-aided "Kroupa drive". Observing this, Carl "Junk" Bond wryly says, "You know you'll have to pee in a cup when we get in!"

OBSERVATIONS FROM VARIOUS ROVING REPORTERS:

Kim "KK" Kebler hit one off the hosel off #2 tee and it nearly went through her legs before going out-of-bounds.

Word has it that Greg Tooker took liberties with his partner's ball on the first hole.

On #7, Tom Burnie was looking to put three 3s in a row on his card and sure enough...he did. He just didn't expect one of them to be the small number over his actual score.

GOLF HUMOR:

CONTROVERSY OF THE WEEK

Hole prizes are paid with Titleist DT Solos...really? Why would Farm Bureau want anyone to find a DT Solo with our logo on it?

THIS WEEK IN GOLF:

HOLE PRIZES:

Mark “Boss of the Moss” Voss had the Longest Putt on #3
 Jim Vedder and Doug Kammann tied for Lowest Net on the Par Fives

NASTY GOLFER AWARD:

Art Kelley had a tough time on this beautiful night, recording two double-digit disasters on his way to an easy win of this “honor”. Although Art did not make an appearance in the home office to pick up his trophy, we were able to cobble something together to get a photo of the proud winner with his prize.

As you may be able to tell from the photo on the right (above), Howard Peston decided to add his little touch to this fine trophy with a fitting photo of Jerry Ford on the golf course.
